

Want to help people in communities across the country obtain affordable housing on a scale that makes a dent in our world? This is it.

Bank of Montana is looking for a highly-motivated individual to join our in-house Multifamily Finance team to help clients nationwide provide and preserve critical affordable housing. Here, you'll have the opportunity to expand and apply your skills in ways you never thought possible. Bank of Montana offers highly-structured multifamily housing finance packages. Bank of Montana is the only U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Multifamily Accelerated Processing (MAP) approved lender headquartered within a 9-state region (there are 96 HUD MAP lenders in the U.S. and only 11 of these institutions are banks). Pursuant to this, we work closely with/utilize HUD, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, life insurance companies and CMBS lenders to offer affordable housing finance.

Join a company where we thrive on innovative thinking, working together and the challenge to be our best to provide our clients with solutions driven by customized products. We are entrepreneurs – building our bank, satisfying our clients and looking for opportunities to grow, just like our clients. If you are a dynamic, collaborative and intense professional who has exceptional reading comprehension, is highly detail-oriented and organized, we would love to meet you!
